Lost Property in Minnesota.

Thos. McGraw, Abo Joseph and Nio Gross were up in the northern part of Minnesota last week where they were looking over land with the prospect of taking up a homestead or investing in some timber land. Just now they are congratulating themselves that they left that part of the country when they did, for had they remained a few days longer it is possible that they might have been caught with some of the others up in that country who perished in the flames. In fact, they report that last Wednesday night they took supper with two homesteaders, who were subsequently numbered among the dead.

Nio Gross, James Mison, Jesse Hopgood and A. Whitlock are among the probable losers from the forest fires up in that country, as their property was right in the burned over district.

A. D. Grignon, who is a son of J. B. Grignon, and well known in this city, is reported to have lost his stock of goods, he having been located at Pitt, Minn., where he was conducting a general merchandise store.

It is stated that the tide of emigration that set in toward Canada a number of years ago, has not only stopped, but is now flowing this way. Some who return cannot say enough against the conditions existing in Canada. It is probable that the trouble in most cases is caused by the fact that the agents of the government who induced settlers to go to Canada, painted the advantages of the country in too glowing terms, while they neglected to mention any of the disadvantages. Every part of the world has its drawbacks as well as advantages, and when a man goes to any place expecting to find everything exactly as it is pictured in a real estate prospectus, he is apt to be disappointed.

We had a narrow escape from embarking in farming last week, owing to an erroneous item that was published in the Marshall News. It stated that Dr. Lachapere had raised 1000 tons of cabbage on 10 acres of land and that it had been sold for $10 a ton. When that enough to make anybody want to go into the same business? Come to find out, however, the printer had put in one other too many, and it should have read 100 tons. However, even with 100 tons of cabbage in the cellar there is no reason why a fellow should not have what boiled cabbage he wants.

Word has been received here that Herman Runthen died recently at Waupun where he was serving a sentence. Deceased was a middle aged man and had been a resident of this city for many years, at one time being a useful and respected citizen. Of late years he took to drink and became a public nuisance when Judge Webb sentenced him to Waupun.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Nugent are mourning the death of their little son Malcolm, eight months old, who died on Thursday evening after an illness of only three days from convulsions. The parents have the sympathy of all in their affliction.

Messieurs Jennie Gilkey and M. H. Jackson returned on Tuesday from Waupun, where they had been in attendance at the W. C. T. U. convention being held in that city.

A nice car of yesterday appears good for cooking and eating on the Northwestern track near the depot, going cheap. Ginsburg.

CASE AFTER CASE
Plenty More Like This in Grand Rapids

Scores of Grand Rapids people can tell you about Doan's Kidney Pills. Many a happy citizen makes a public statement of his experience. Here is a case of it. What better proof of merit can be had than such endorsement?

Louis Young, 753 Twelfth St. N.; Grand Rapids, Wis., says: Doan's Kidney Pills are the best remedy I ever used for kidney trouble. My kidneys were very much disordered and my rest was greatly disturbed by a kidney weakness. The kidney secretions were abundant and contained a heavy sediment. ## JOHN DIETZ HAS BEEN CAPTURED

Saturday saw the finish of the John Dietz matter at Cameron Dam, after Dietz himself had been shot thru the hand and his son wounded, the family surrendering to Sheriff Madden. One deputy sheriff named Harp was killed during the skirmish, he having been found after the scrap was over.

Dietz's house was surrounded by deputies and the man was called on to surrender, but he refused to do so, when the shooting began, Dietz and his family also shot, but without much effect, the only man that was hurt being Harp, and Dietz claims that he was not shot by anybody in the Dietz home. The house was riddled with bullets, and when entered after the surrender of Dietz it was found that the dishes and other things of a breakable character were simply smashed in pieces. It is stated that more than 1000 shots were fired into the building, and Dietz claimed that he would not have surrendered had it not been for his wife's condition.

Whatever may have caused him to surrender, it is a fact that there has passed into history one of the most remarkable fights ever waged by one man against the public and the state of Wisconsin.

When Dietz was having his trouble with the lumber company, he had public sympathy with him pretty much, and all his neighbors up in that country were his friends, but after he shot Bert Harp and then refused to give himself up he lost the sympathy of nearly everybody, and the end was bound to come.

By his obstinacy in the matter he has been the means of having one man killed outright and himself and three of his children wounded. Now he will have to face a murder charge and will have very few friends to stand by him in the matter.

Civil Service Examination.

All persons wishing to take this examination should secure blanks and fill them out at once in order to allow time for any necessary corrections.—Peter Newton, 13th floor, Federal building, Chicago, Ill.

King-Passineau.

W. L. King of Metropolis, Ill., and Miss Lucille Passineau of this city were married at the Catholic parsonage this morning at 9 o'clock by Rev. Roling. The groom was attended by N. E. Passineau a brother of the bride and the bride by Mrs. Leonard Richards. A wedding dinner was served at the home of the bride's mother to a number of relatives and friends.

The bride is one of Grand Rapids popular young ladies and for several years has been employed as a trained nurse. Mr. King, while almost a stranger in the city, is a bright and energetic young business man who is employed by the Monarch Life and Indemnity Insurance Co., of Evansville, Ind., with headquarters at Indianapolis, where they will make their future home, leaving for there tonight via the St. Paul Ry.

Child Hurt at Port Edwards.

The fourteen months old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Trefron of the village of Port Edwards was run over by a light wagon on Tuesday while playing in the road. It was thought at first that the child was fatally injured, but later reports are that she will probably recover.

Football Saturday.

The local high school team will play the Oshkosh team on Saturday. The Oshkosh team is reported to be a strong one, and as our boys have been showing up pretty good this season, there is no reason why they should not be a good one.

Miss Vida Riley expects to leave the latter part of the week for Massachusetts, where she will visit with relatives for a couple of weeks. She will also stop at Detroit enroute and visit a relative there for a few days.

Dr. Witter.

A brief mention was made last week of the accidental death of Dr. G. F. Witter, who was killed by being run down by an automobile at his home in San Jose, Cal., the previous Sunday. The exact particulars of the accident have not been received here, it being known only that he was crossing the street near his home, when he was struck by an auto that was being driven by a young fellow, resulting in his death.

Altho Dr. Witter left this city fourteen years ago, he is well remembered by all of the older residents on account of his having been a prominent figure here for so many years.

He was born near Nile, New York, in 1829, and was consequently 81 years of age. He came west when a young man and entered medical school at Ann Arbor, Mich., where he received his degree of M. D. He practiced medicine at Waukegan for a time and came to Grand Rapids in 1857. Grand Rapids at that time was merely a small collection of houses, and from that time until he left here fourteen years ago, was one of the prominent citizens.

He was married to Frances L. Phelps, of Guilford, N. Y., in 1868, and three children were born to them. These were Willis, who died three years ago in Berkeley, Cal.; George, who still resides in Oakland, and Mrs. W. D. Connor of Marshallfield.

Dr. Witter was a member of the school board of this city for years, and was also a member of the state board of health for twelve years and served as its president for some time. While a member of the board he wrote and published many professional papers, the tobacco article by him being largely circulated.

He built and formerly owned the Witter House and the building adjoining which was formerly used for a drug store. He was a member of the Congregational church and belonged to the Masonic and Odd Fellow orders.

Mr. Witter left this city for California fourteen years ago on account of his wife's health, leaving a large practice and many friends behind him. Mrs. Witter died three years afterward at San Jose, Cal., and six years ago he married Mrs. Emma Loveland.

He has made his home in San Jose, in which city the accident occurred. It will only have been one week at the time of the accident, having just returned from a visit to his daughter, Mrs. Connor, of Marshallfield, and to his city and had also made a trip to New York state where there was a reunion of relatives in their honor.

Dr. Witter will long be remembered among our older residents as a man who was ever ready to do what he could to alleviate the sufferings of mankind and as a just and public spirited man.

Death of Wm. Downing.

William Downing, one of the old residents of Wood County, died on Friday of last week, Oct. 7th, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Wm. Hastings, at Tacoma, Wash. Death was the result of paralysis and bright disease.

Wm. Downing was born in Montpelier, Vermont, on the 4th of March, 1844. He came to Wisconsin with his parents when about 10 years of age and became a resident of Dexter, Wis., and lived there about all his life until he left to reside at LaCrosse about six years ago. After reaching manhood he engaged in the mercantile business at Dexter and conducted a store there for a long term of years.

He was married 43 years ago last June to Miss Rosella Shields, who died about seven years ago.

Some six years ago Mr. Downing was married to Mrs. Mary Porter, who survives him. Some five years ago Mr. Downing suffered a stroke of paralysis, and altho he partially recovered from the affliction, he has never been well since that time. The past couple of years he has also been afflicted with bright disease, and much of the time has been confined to his bed.

Besides the widow he is survived by six children, they being Mrs. Wm. Hastings of Tacoma, Wash.; Mrs. Wm. Ellison of Wisconsin, Minn.; Mrs. George Ward of this city, Frank and Fred Downing of Tacoma, and Miss Cecil Downing who made her home with her father at Tacoma.

The funeral will occur on Thursday at Dexter, where the remains will be interred.

Mrs. T. Latourette.

Mrs. T. Latourette, one of the old settlers, died at her home on the west side on Wednesday, Oct. 5th, after an illness of several days with heart trouble and other complications. Deceased was 66 years of age and is survived by a husband and three grown up children. The funeral was held on Saturday at 9:30 from the Catholic church, Rev. Wm. Reding officiating and the remains were interred in Calvary cemetery.

FOOTBALL GAME WAS A FARCE.

The football game on Saturday between the Neillville and the Grand Rapids high school teams developed into a foot race during the first part of the game, with the Grand Rapids team ahead and the Neillville boys in the rear.

The visiting team was a trifle light when sized up with our team and this combined with the fact that they either did not know anything about the game or else were afraid to go in and try to win, made a pretty tame affair of it, and the score of 74 to 0 was no surprise to the small crowd of spectators that lined the ropes.

The game opened up by Neillville kicking off to Grand Rapids. The ball was caught and started up the field when our boys were downed somewhere near the center of the field. Then at the first scrimmage our boys made a forward pass, the ball was taken by Neillville, and with the aid of good interference from the rest of the team he got entirely free of the crowd and made a touchdown. It was worked so quickly that the visitors hardly seemed to know what had happened.

From this time on there was nothing to it. The home boys made and run, forward passes and all kinds of plays, and no matter what they tried they were generally successful, so that at the end of the first quarter the score was 24 to 0. As the game progressed the Neillville boys seemed to get into it a little more, but not enough so that they accomplished anything.

Nobody was hurt during the game and the boys seemed to enjoy their trip home notwithstanding the fact of being badly beaten.

Civil Service Opportunities.

Positions as employees in the legislature of 1911 will be filled by competitive examinations which will be held throughout the state at the various county seats on Saturday, November 19, 1910. There will also be held on the same date examinations for clerkships at West Point and Annapolis, family officer and matron, greenhouse man, janitor, local assistant to state veterinarian, policeman, professor and state agent (parole officer).

A general competitive examination for stenographers, including several legislative positions will be held during the week beginning Monday, November 21, 1910.

Persons interested should write to the State Civil Service Commission, Madison, Wis., for information and blanks.

Two years ago nearly 800 candidates wrote in the examination for filling the legislative positions, and indications point to a still larger number of candidates this fall.

Bank for Vesper.

Work was commenced last week on the new bank building at Vesper to be occupied by the new state bank, which was organized there recently. The building will be built of brick and will be 22x30, two stories high, the second floor to be occupied by the Oliver & Martin, real estate agents. Louis Johnson has the contract for the stone work and Mergtroy Bros. will have charge of the brick work.

The bank is capitalized for $12,500, considerable of the stock being subscribed by Vesper business men.

The officers of the new institution will be Geo. Martin, South Wayne, Ind., Pres.; Owen Oliver of Waukecha, Vice President; Mr. Jones of Lexington, Ky., Cashier.

May Change the Name.

Bishop Grafton, Rev. R. H. Weller and several others from this state, including Wm. H. Roddis of Marshallfield and E. O. Brown of Rhinelander, have gone to Cincinnati to attend the annual convention of the Episcopal church. One of the most important things to be considered at the convention is whether the present title, "Episcopal Church," shall be changed. Two new names have been suggested, "American Catholic Church" and "American Church."

A Fine Horse.

Nick Ratelle, one of the progressive young farmers of the town of Rudolph, was in the city on Tuesday to attend the stock fair, bringing with him his big Percheron Stallion which he placed on exhibition during the day in the Chambers livery. This horse is without a question one of the finest and largest stallions ever brought to Wood County. He is 4 years old and weighs 2,185 pounds. The horse cost Mr. Ratelle $1500 and was purchased last spring at Delevan.

—R. N. A. will give a chicken supper Thursday, Oct. 20, at the Forester hall.—2c.

Man Shot at Babcock.

Joseph Hand, a resident of Babcock, was shot about 4:30 o'clock Sunday morning while on the premises of Joseph Eichenauer, being struck in the abdomen with a load of bird shot. Eichenauer was arrested, charged with the shooting, and is now in the county jail, altho he does not admit being the person who did it.

According to the stories that have been told concerning the matter Eichenauer has been bothered more or less by boys and others who have been stealing his melons and other garden stuff. He had some of these arrested and since that time those about town have amused themselves more or less by telling him that life chickens were going to be taken, and in fact some of his chickens were taken, so that Eichenauer got in the habit of sitting up nights with a shot gun, watching his chicken coop. Hand, the man who was shot, claims that he was not after chickens, but when a man is caught fooling about a chicken coop at 3:30 in the morning, the natural supposition would be that it was chickens he was after, altho, of course, it might not have been.

Hand is reported to be in a critical condition from his wounds, the charge of bird shot having struck him in the abdomen at a distance of about fifty feet.

Hand, the man who was shot, has the reputation at Babcock of being a heavy drinker, and a man who does very little work, altho he is a married man and has a family.

MARRIAGE LICENSES

The following marriage licenses have been issued by County Clerk Eichenauer during the past week:

John Fuhrer of Auburnville to Mary Baker of Auburnville.

Louis Schell to Margaret Adler both of Marshallfield.

Alvin J. Beck to Julia Pankratz both of the town of Marshallfield.

William Leonard King of Indianapolis, Indiana, Marion County to Lucille Genevieve Pommerville of Grand Rapids.

George H. Stahl of Sheboygan to Julia A. Gueland of Vesper.

George Atwood to Della Stahlbrook both of the town of Grand Rapids.

Philip Mayor of Whitteley Taylor County, to Anna Raulber of Marshallfield.

Louise Sell to Minnie Kundinger both of the town of Auburnville.

Automobile Burned.

The Overland auto belonging to M. Weeks was reduced to a wreck on Monday morning by fire. Mr. Weeks went into the garage, which is a frame building back of his house, to start the machine, but when he had given it a turn or two it caught fire to the carburetor. He ran to the house to get some water to extinguish the flames and when he got back the whole interior of the building was in flames, so that he could not get in at all. An alarm was turned in and the fire company responded at once and the flames were extinguished but not before considerable damage had been done.

The auto was a new one bought this spring, being one of the forty horsepower models. It was insured for $1000 in the Fritzsche agency.

Married Saturday Evening.

They will spend a few days at the home of the bridegroom's mother in Grand Rapids, and then go to Chippewa Falls. Mr. Shearier is superintendent of the Ute Construction company, which is now engaged in the construction of a concrete dam at Jim Falls for the Davis Land company.

The woman was sent to the Eastern institute and all dog owners in the city ordered to muzzle their dogs for the next sixty days.

Lost Property in Minnesota.

Thos. McGraw, Abe Joseph and Nic Gross were up in the northern part of Minnesota last week where they were looking over land with the prospect of taking up a homestead or investing in some timber land. Just now they are congratulating themselves that they left that part of the country when they did, for had they remained a few days longer it is possible that they might have been caught with some of the others up in that country who perished in the flames. In fact, they took supper Wednesday night they report, with two homesteaders, who were subsequently numbered among the dead.

Nic Gross, James Mason, Jesse Hopgood and A. Whitlock are among the probable losers from the forest fires up in that country, as their property was right in the burned over district.

A. D. Grignon, who is a son of J. B. Grignon, and well known in this city, is reported to have lost his stock of goods, he having been located at Pitt, Minn., where he was conducting a general merchandise store.

It is stated that the tide of emigration that set in toward Canada a number of years ago, has not only stopped, but is now flowing this way. Some who return cannot say enough against the conditions existing in Canada. It is probable that the trouble in most cases is caused by the fact that the agents of the government who induced settlers to go to Canada, painted in too glowing terms, while they neglected to mention any of the disadvantages. Every part of the world has its drawbacks as well as advantages, and when a man goes to any place expecting to find everything exactly the way it is pictured in a real estate prospectus, he is apt to be disappointed.

We had a narrow escape from embarking in farming last week, owing to an erroneous item that was published in the Marshfield News. It stated that Dr. Lathrop had raised 1000 tons of cabbage on 10 acres of land and that it had been sold for $10 a ton. Wasn't that enough to make anybody want to go into the sauerkraut business? Come to find out, however, the printer had put in one cipher too many, and it should have read 100 tons. However, even with 100 tons of cabbage in the cellar there is no reason why a fellow should not have what boiled cabbage he wants.

Word has been received here that Herman Ramthun died recently at Waupun where he was serving a sentence. Deceased was a middle-aged man and had been a resident of this city for many years, at one time being a useful and respected citizen. Of late years he took to drink and became a public nuisance when Judge Webb sentenced him to Waupun.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Nugent are mourning the death of their little son Malcolm, eight months old, who died on Thursday evening after an illness of only three days from convulsions. The parents have the sympathy of all in their affliction.

Mrs. Jennie Gilkey and M. H. Jackson returned on Tuesday from Wausau, where they had been in attendance at the W. O. T. U. convention being held in that city.

A nice car of eastern apples good for cooking and eating on the Northwestern track near the depot, going cheap. Ginsburg.

CASE AFTER CASE

Plenty. More Like This in Grand Rapids

Scores of Grand Rapids people can tell you about Doan's Kidney Pills. Many a happy citizen makes a public statement of his experience. Here is a case of it. What better proof of merit can be had than such endorsements? Louis Young, 753 Twelfth St. N., Grand Rapids, Wis., says: Doan's Kidney Pills are the best remedy I ever used for kidney trouble. My kidneys were very much disturbed by a kidney weakness. The kidney secretions were highly colored, contained a heavy sediment and passed entirely too frequently. My back ached almost constantly. I had sharp, shooting pains across my loins. I finally read of Doan's Kidney Pills and seeing that they were recommended highly by a local doctor, I procured a box. I returned for the benefit I received from their use. I can recommend them to anyone suffering from kidney complaint. For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-McMillan Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

JOHN DIETZ HAS BEEN CAPTURED

Saturday saw the finish of the John Dietz matter at Cameron Dam, after Dietz himself had been shot thru the hand and his son wounded, the family surrendering to Sheriff Madden. One deputy sheriff named Harp was killed during the skirmish, he having been found after the scrap was over.

Dietz's house was surrounded by deputies and the man was called on to surrender, but he refused to do so, when the shooting began, Dietz and his family also shot, but without much effect, the only man that was hurt being Harp, and Dietz claims that he was not shot by anybody in the Dietz home. The house was riddled with bullets, and when it was found that the dishes and other things of a breakable character were simply smashed in pieces. It is stated that more than 1000 shots were fired into the building, and Dietz claimed that he would not have surrendered had it not been for his wife's condition.

Whatever may have caused him to surrender, it is a fact that there has passed into history one of the most remarkable fights ever waged by one man against the public and the state of Wisconsin.

When Dietz was having his trouble with the lumber company, he had public sympathy with him pretty much, and all his neighbors up in that country were his friends, but after he shot Bert Horel and then refused to give himself up, he lost the sympathy of nearly everybody, and the end was bound to come.

By his obstinacy in the matter he has been the means of having one man killed outright and himself and three of his children wounded. Now he will have to face a murder charge and will have very few friends to stand by him in the matter.

The local high school team will play the Oshkosh team on Saturday. The Oshkosh team is reported to be a strong one, and as our boys have been showing up pretty good this season, there is no reason why the game should not be a good one.

Dr. Witter.

A brief mention was made last week of the accidental death of Dr. G. F. Witter, who was killed by being run down by an automobile at his home in San Jose, Cal., the previous Sunday. The exact particulars of the accident have not been received here, it being known only that he was crossing the street near his home, when he was struck by an auto that was being driven by a young fellow, resulting in his death.

Altho Dr. Witter left this city fourteen years ago, he is well remembered by all of the older residents on account of his having been a prominent figure here for so many years.

He was born near Nile, New York, in 1829, and was consequently 81 years of age. He came west when a young man and entered medical school at Ann Arbor, Mich., where he received his degree of M. D. He practiced medicine at Waukegan for a time and came to Grand Rapids in 1857. Grand Rapids at that time was merely a small collection of houses, and from that time until he left here fourteen years ago, was one of the prominent citizens.

He was married to Frances L. Phelps, of Guilford, N. Y., in 1858, and three children were born to them. These were Willis, who died three years ago in Berkeley, Cal., George, who still resides in Oakland, and Mrs. W. D. Connor of Marshfield.

Dr. Witter was a member of the school board of this city for years, and was also a member of the state board of health for twelve years and served as its president for some time. While a member of the board he wrote and published many professional papers, the Tobacco article by him being largely circulated.

He built and formerly owned the Witter House and the building adjoining which was formerly used for a drug store. He was a member of the Congregational church and belonged to the Masonic and Odd Fellow orders.

Mr. Witter left this city for California fourteen years ago on account of his wife's health, leaving a large practice and many friends behind him. Mrs. Witter died three years afterward at San Jose, Cal., and six years ago he married Mrs. Emma Loveland.

He has made his home in San Jose, in which city the accident occurred. They had only been home one week at the time of the accident, having just returned from a visit to his daughter, Mrs. Connor, of Marshfield, and to this city and had also made a trip to New York state where there was a reunion of relatives in their honor.

Death of Wm. Downing.

William Downing, one of the old residents of Wood County, died on Friday of last week, Oct. 7th, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Wm. Hastings, at Tacoma, Wash. Death was the result of paralysis and bright disease.

Wm. Downing was born in Montpelier, Vermont, on the 6th of March, 1844. He came to Wisconsin with his parents when about 10 years of age and became a resident of Dexterville, and lived there about all his life until he left to reside at LaCrosse about six years ago. After reaching manhood he engaged in the mercantile business at Dexterville and conducted a store there for a long term of years.

He was married 43 years ago last June to Miss Rozella Shields, who died about seven years ago.

Some six years ago Mr. Downing was married to Mrs. Mary Porter, who survives him. Some five years ago Mr. Downing suffered a stroke of paralysis, and altho he partially recovered from the affliction, he has never been well since that time. The past couple of years he has also been afflicted with bright disease, and much of the time has been confined to his bed.

Besides the widow he is survived by six children, they being Mrs. Wm. Hastings of Tacoma, Wash., Mrs. Wm. Ellison of Winona, Minn., Mrs. George Ward of this city, Frank and Fred Downing of Tacoma, and Miss Cecel Downing who made her home with her father at Tacoma.

The funeral will occur on Thursday at Dexterville, where the remains will be interred.

FOOTBALL GAME WAS A FARCE.

The football game on Saturday between the Neillsville and the Grand Rapids high school teams developed into a foot race during the first part of the game, with the Grand Rapids team ahead and the Neillsville boys in the rear.

The visiting team was a trifle lighter when sized up with our team and this combined with the fact that they either did not know anything about the game or else were afraid to go in and try to win, made a pretty tame affair of it, and the score of 74 to 0 was no surprise to the small crowd of spectators that lined the ropes.

The game opened up by Neillsville kicking off to Grand Rapids. The ball was caught and started up the field when our boys were downed somewhere near the center of the field. Then at the first scrimmage our boys made a forward pass, and the ball was taken by Weeks, and with the aid of good interference from the rest of the team he got entirely free of the crowd and made a touchdown. It was worked so quickly that the visitors hardly seemed to know what had happened.

From this time on there was nothing to it. The home boys made end runs, forward passes and all kinds of plays, and no matter what they tried they were generally successful, so that at the end of the first quarter the score was 24 to 0. As the game progressed the Neillsville boys seemed to get into it a little more, but not enough so that they accomplished anything.

Nobody was hurt during the game and the boys seemed to enjoy their trip here notwithstanding the fact of being badly beaten.

Civil Service Opportunities.

Two years ago nearly 800 candidates wrote in the examination for filling the legislative positions, and indications point to a still larger number of candidates this fall.

May Change the Name.

Bishop Grafton, Rev. R. H. Weller and several others from this state, including Wm. H. Roddis of Marshfield and E. O. Brown of Rhineland, have gone to Cincinnati to attend the annual convention of the Episcopal church. One of the most important things to be considered at the convention is whether the present title, "Episcopal Church," shall be changed. Two new names have been suggested, "American Catholic Church" and "American Church."

A Fine Horse.

Nick Batelle, one of the progressive young farmers of the town of Rudolph, was in the city on Tuesday to attend the stock fair, bringing with him his big Percheron Stallion which he placed on exhibition during the day in the Chambers livery. This horse is without a question one of the finest and largest stallions ever brought to Wood County. He is 4 years old and weighs 2,185 pounds. The horse cost Mr. Batelle $1300 and was purchased last spring at Delevan.

Man Shot at Babcock.

Joseph Hand, a resident of Babcock, was shot about 3:30 o'clock Sunday morning while on the premises of Joseph Eichmeier, being struck in the abdomen with a load of bird shot. Eichmeier was arrested, charged with the shooting, and is now in the county jail, altho he does not admit being the person who did it.

According to the stories that have been told concerning the matter Eichmeier has been bothered more or less by boys and others who have been stealing his melons and other garden stuff. He had some of them arrested and since that time those about town have amused themselves more or less by telling him that his chickens were going to be taken, and in fact some of his chickens were taken, so that Eichmeier got in the habit of sitting up nights with a shot gun, watching his chicken coup. Hand, the man who was shot, claims that he was not after chickens, but when a man is caught fooling about a chicken coup at 3:30 in the morning, the natural supposition would be that it was chickens he was after, altho, of course, it might not have been.

Hand is reported to be in a critical condition from his wounds, the charge of bird shot having struck him in the abdomen at a distance of about fifty feet.

Hand, the man who was shot, has the reputation at Babcock of being a heavy drinker, and a man who does very little work, altho he is a married man and has a family.

Automobile Burned.

The Overland auto belonging to M. Weeks was reduced to a wreck on Monday morning by fire. Mr. Weeks went into the garage, which is a frame building back of his house, to start the machine, but when he had given it a turn or two it caught fire about the carburetor. He ran to the house to get some water to extinguish the flames and when he got back the whole interior of the building was in flames, so that he could not get in at all. An alarm was turned in and the fire company responded at once and the flames were extinguished but not before considerable damage had been done.

The auto was a new one bought this spring, being one of the forty horsepower models. It was insured for $100 in the Fritzdinger agency.

SHOPPING IN MIDCOAST.

The wireless message pulsing over the sea has put the voyaging financier in daily communication with the bourses of New York, London and Paris. Even in midcoast the capital is not far off, with a view to the protection or the profit of his purse. But it is vain for mere man to imagine that he could reserve the instrumentality to his exclusive use. If the wireless can be utilized to make or to conserve money, it follows as the night the day that it is available for spending money. The enterprising merchant could not fail to be alert to the opportunity to increase the debit side of a fair client's account, says Washington Post. Father, husband, brother have cherished the thought that when their dear ones were safely at home in swift and luxurious palace, the lion of shopping was in a state of at least temporary desuetude. But not so; the ribbon counter and the showcases have been extended, figuratively speaking, across the sea. The lady fair may now indulge her penchant for shopping even in midcoast. Every department store in great cities near the Atlantic coast will be topped with its full electric must and maintain an operator at its foot. Bulletin of bargains may be published on shipboard. Moreover, if the lady is on her way home with a depleted purse, she can make an aerial draft to meet every bit of every article on board and make sure that none of her own-folk meet her with worn supplies promptly on arrival at the pier.

London's last season, with dull gray skies and chill winds, is partly compensated for by the promise of good crops abounding. Parliament has risen in time for the sport, and that part of society which is not already "on the continent" is bound northward for the season. Summerless England is exchanged for Scotland, which, when the grouse are plentiful and in good condition, is a good place to be even if the weather is wet. Bright skies over the moors transform the sportsman's part of Scotland into a semblance of paradise. To be sure, the serpent is there. The grouse and the birds are slaughtered by the thousands. But they have fulfilled their destiny. Who can do more? And might good eating is a well cooked grouse from the Graupian hills.

In East Haddam, about sixteen miles north from the mouth of the Connecticut river, hanging the bell of St. Stephen's church, and in use today, is a bell that was cast in Spain over 1,000 years ago. The Spanish inscription states that the bell was cast in Spain in 816 and the name of the priest who blessed it are all very distinct. Those who have interested themselves in this valuable old relic within the church in Spain where it originally hung was destroyed by Napoleon, this bell and many others being sent to America, where there was a great market. It is 25 inches high and 24 inches in diameter at the base.

Nearly one million new farms have been created in the United States during the last ten years. In the last ten years the total number of farms has increased 18 per cent, says American Agriculturalist. In the older states, from Ohio eastward, there has been going on for twenty years a tendency toward the amalgamation of farms distant from market into larger holdings. On the other hand, this section has witnessed the cutting up into smaller sizes of many farms nearer to market. There are now almost three times as many farms as in 1870, and an unprecedented increase in the value of farm lands and live stock.

There is one boat on the Hudson river that refuses to be outwitted. Although the word fast is not usually heeded when applied to the foodless gender, the Mary Powell glides by like a fish and has made records in the 100 and 200 yard races. Captain Anderson has served on the boat forty years in various capacities. The Mary Powell is still in daily use by the Hudson River Day Line, and cuts the water between New York and Kingston not only like a thing of life but like a thing of very lively life.

A passenger has been carried on a monoplane across the English channel. A majority of the people who have to cross the channel will continue for a while, however, to risk the danger of being shaken up in the old-fashioned way.

FINO BOMB VICTIMS

SEVENTH BODY RECOVERED FROM RUINS OF LOS ANGELES TIMES BUILDING.

FRISCO CLEWS FOLLOWED

Officers Guard General Otis' Home—Digging in Ruins Continues—Legislature in Deadlock Over Reward for Capture of Fiends.

Los Angeles, Cal.—Searchers in the ruins of the Los Angeles Times building, which was destroyed by an explosion and fire Saturday morning, came upon seven charred bodies at the foot of the elevator shaft Monday. The bodies could not be recognized.

Five bodies, all badly charred, had been previously recovered. The man in charge of the Times announced that it now appears certain that twenty-one were killed.

It is asserted by physicians in charge of the injured that probably none will die, though several may be crippled for life.

Squads of detectives are constantly on guard at the home of General Otis and his son-in-law, Harry Chandler, in the ruins of the Times.

The police confirmed a report that the trail of the supposed dynamite conspirators who are believed to have wrecked the Times plant last Saturday had been struck in this city.

"I regard a second clue which we have picked up as important as the first," said the chief of the department of the Los Angeles Times, which is engaged in the investigation of the explosion in San Francisco, said Chief of Police Gallagher. He refused to tell what the clue was.

Los Angeles, Cal.—At least twenty men lost their lives Saturday when the building occupied by the Los Angeles Times Publishing company was destroyed by fire.

The explosion was caused by an explosion and immediately the building was enveloped in flames. The blast occurred on the second floor of an addition to the old building. This is of three floors. Within a few seconds the entire structure was a fiery furnace.

The cause of the explosion was greatest in the mechanical department, and the majority of the dead and injured were members of these departments. Twenty-two injured were taken to the receiving hospital.

Within twelve hours after the wrecking of the Times plant an attempt was made to destroy the remains of the building. The remains of the building were taken to the receiving hospital.

The bomb was discovered in a suitcase hidden under a bunch of vines near a bay window and was exploded as it was hurried into the street.

Another bomb was found earlier in the day at the residence of F. J. Zschender, secretary of the Merchants and Manufacturers' association.

General Otis and the other responsible heads of the paper charge the Times building disaster and narrowly averted attempts at further destruction of life and property to labor union forces. The property damage is estimated at $500,000.

With equal emphasis the leaders of the union labor here and throughout the state repudiate the accusation that have been made in their power in the effort to detect the culprits.

For twenty years, following a quarrel with the typographical union, which resulted in making the Times a nonunion paper, General Otis has fought unionism with every resource at his command. In their power in this fight by the Merchants and Manufacturers' association, whose secretary was the object of frustrated dynamiting.

The president of the local typographical union issued orders that unionists should not work in conjunction with the nonunion printers of the Times in any of the local newspaper offices in getting out the edition of the Times.

The city council met in special session and appropriated $25,000 for the purpose of detecting the cause of the Times explosion and provided a reward of $25,000 for the capture of those responsible for the outrage.

Beverly, Mass.—William H. Moody resigned his position as associate justice of the United States Supreme court Tuesday. President Taft accepted the resignation in a letter expressing deep regret that the continued ill health of the justice rendered it impossible for him to continue as a member of the court.

His resignation is effective November 20. Moody was almost certain that he would never be able to resume his public duties and at the last session of congress a special act was passed which enabled him to retire on full pay before attaining full age requisite for retirement.

Racing Automobile Said to Cause Runaway. Farmer Meets Death When Frightened Horses Leap Upon Railway Tracks.

Racine.—One man was killed and fourteen persons slightly injured when a car on the Milwaukee, Racine and Kenosha branch of the Milwaukee Road, and a traction company struck a horse and wagon and became derailed, six miles south of Racine.

John Goergen, the man who was killed, was driving beside the railway track, which at that point parallels the car line. His horses becoming frightened, they dashed across the track with the result that Goergen was instantly killed, the horses mangled to death, and the wagon knocked to splinters, the debris causing the derailment of the car.

All the occupants of the car were thrown in a heap on the floor, many receiving severe bruises in their frantic efforts to release themselves and get out of the car.

Goergen was on his way from Berwyn, where he had delivered a load of garden truck. It is reported that his team was frightened by a racing automobile.

STANDARD CUTS OIL PRICES

Reductions Made in Europe and the Far East in Campaign to Increase Use of Kerosene.

New York, Jan. 1. C. Clarke, through whom the Standard Oil company makes its official announcements to the public, has issued a statement to the effect that the company has cut prices on kerosene in European countries and the lands of the Orient. The first move in this campaign is the reduction of the prices of oil in those countries. Mr. Clarke's announcement says in part:

"The Standard Oil company has inaugurated a campaign to increase the world's consumption of refined oil. The level of prices for refined oil today in the United States is lower than at any time during recent years, and as a direct result of these prices the consumption of refined oil in this country is increasing. The same policy is now being actively pursued abroad."

As indicated by this statement, the Standard company began trying out the policy of lower prices in the United States, though without announcing that it had in view a campaign that would cover the world. In August, the price of refined oil in the United States was reduced from 5 1/2 cents a gallon, and the price of refined oil in barrels at the refinery was cut 1 cent, from 9 1/2 to 8 1/2 cents a gallon.

Over the Alps.

July 20, 1910.

By M. H. Jackson

Will any of our party ever forget the ride over the Alps into Italy? It was not in an airship that we arose from Lucerne to a height of a mile in less than three hours. A mile above the level of Lake Lucerne, which is over four hundred feet above sea level. At one time, we were seven thousand feet above the sea with another mile of mountain above us, directly overhead. This was when we passed through St. Gotthard's tunnel ten miles long. In getting our train to this dizzy height in so short a space of time, Italian engineers worked out a system of what are known as "corkscrew" tunnels which work round and round ascending as they turn inside the mountain.

Several times we could see, as we passed, the smoking entrance of a tunnel into which we had plunged in short time before and were now passing again. Three times we passed a little village in which a house was on fire, and the villagers were at work trying to extinguish the blaze. We first saw it above us, then from a point nearly on a level with the track and then we passed it when it was far below us. One turn of a mile in the tunnel elevated the train one hundred eighty feet. On the Italian side of the mountains we are let down through corkscrews in the same manner. What a piece of engineering this represents! Lucerne in the morning; the top of the Alps for dinner; and Milan at early supper time! What would the medieval inhabitants have thought of such a fairy story?

Monday morning, we left the pretty little "dorm" in the Bavarian mountains whose inhabitants had led us in the worship of the Passion Play the day before. We left very early in the morning, and yet it was not too early for us to find a long line of waiting people anxious to secure tickets for the play. Many of them had been disappointed the day before and were not to be outdone that day. We bade goodbye to the village, and regretfully looked back upon it until the mountains shut it away from our view. Oberammergau was to be henceforth a memory only, but a delightful one it will be and we are all thankful for this rich experience. Our only regret is that our friends could not share it with us.

Back to Munich, and our special train, we go. We find it waiting for us and without delay we get on board and start for Lucerne. At the Austrian border we are rounded up in the custom house shed, but not a piece of baggage is opened. In Switzerland and in Italy we receive the same courteous treatment. So far no country but England has put us to the full test, but we must not complain for Uncle Sam will "multiply our burdens by many" when we get back home. Our custom houses are hard to "run" and smugglers among our own countrymen make it difficult for the rest of us to disembark when we reach home. We ran three custom houses today with ease. These people like to see the "American" and they do not like to make it unpleasant for him. Americans are pouring money into those countries and it is raising the standard of living here. It is also furnishing that which will satisfy the increasing wants of the people, so we shall not expect to see the enforcement of tariff regulations working to the discomfort of the traveling public who are "abroad."

At Lucerne we of course visited the Lion, the most impressive of Thorwaldsen's works. The great beast is cut in the hillside rock in commemoration of the brave Swiss Guards who were cut down to a man in defense of the Tuilleries at Paris after Louis XVI had left them in charge. No braver soldiers ever lived than those of Switzerland, and this deed of courage is only one of many that may be told of the hardy Swiss soldiers.

In the morning we go on board the "Wilhelm Tell" for a twenty-five mile ride up Lake Lucerne to Altdorf, the scene of many adventures of Wilhelm Tell. There we shall see a monument erected to the memory of Tell near where Gessler raised his hat on a pole and tried to compel the Swiss people to salute it. You of course know the story of the shooting of the apple from his son's head at the command of Gessler. We shall see the spot where the Swiss people tell us that Tell stood when he shot the arrow and also where the stone stood at the time. The truth of this legend may be questioned elsewhere, but not here. The story of Wilhelm Tell is a reality to these people, and it is equally so to me. From my childhood I have believed the story and shall continue to assert my right to do so against all the evidence which may be offered. A few of my childhood idols will be cherished regardless of the fact that I gave up my Santa Claus reluctantly at a very early age; Jack the Giant-killer went too, and Tom Thumb increased in size as I grew older; but Robinson Crusoe, and Wilhelm Tell have stood with me so long that if they will now stand by me I shall never forsake them.

The ride up the lake is all that could be desired for scenic effect. Leaving the pier we have Mount Rigi on our left and Mount Pilatus on our right. In and out we go among the Swiss mountains. Many attempts have been made to describe them, but no one has yet succeeded in doing so. The ride is over before we want it to be and we go ashore and walk down the famous mountain shore road to Fluelen, and from there walk out to Altdorf and to Burglen the home of Wilhelm Tell. A chapel stands where it is supposed his home once stood.

In my home county in Wisconsin, so far away, is a place called Altdorf named by some brave people who used to live right here. I am glad to stand here now and see the place so dear to some of them, and I shall be glad to tell them about it when I return home.

The walk out to Altdorf is a beautiful one. There are mountains all around us, upon whose slopes and tops are thousands of cattle. These are driven up the mountains in the spring and there pastured and driven back in the fall. There are little houses up there used by those who take care of the cattle.

At Fluelen our train is waiting for us and we begin our real climb. Every little spot that can produce vegetation is used even in the mountains. A little level spot on the slope may be terraced and planted. One little plot not five feet square may be planted as a garden or even sown to wheat. Small patches are used high up on the mountain side where soil has been carried up from below to make the spot more productive.

But the Alps! the Alps! with their cascades, their mountain torrents, their green sides, their rocky precipices, their bald, snow-capped tops, their clouds and sunshine. A day in the Alps is an experience of a life time. The mountaineers are all glad to see us. They wave their hands as we fly along and we all respond heartily with hands, hats and handkerchiefs. We pass the region of houses with that stones used for slings. We catch glimpses of small residences away up the slopes so high and so steep that we wonder how they keep them from rolling down. We wonder if the cattle have claws. We wonder if there are doctors and lawyers up there. We wonder if there are newspapers. We wonder, we wonder so many things, that we just have to close our eyes while we wonder. It is all so new to us, and it comes in such unceasing variety, that we find ourselves rushing from one side of the car to the other and back again that we may not miss any new experience.

From any part with the centuries of art and culture, to the top of the Alps mountains, and this in a few days is a change so sudden and so violent that it takes our breath. What would these mountain peasants do were they to be suddenly transplanted to the unnatural conditions surrounding life in a large city, and what would the Parisian do were he taken off his boulevard, out of his stores and parks and replanted on a slope in the Alps with a little cottage, half barn, a cow, some chickens and a patchwork quilt of little gardens and there told to "dig a living"?

From Lucerne, we go up a mile in altitude, through miles and miles of tunneling and then down the sunny Italian slopes, covered with grape vines and fruit trees, to the level country, toward the valley of the Po. Tonight we shall be at Milan where we shall visit the great cathedral, then on to Venice, Florence, Rome, and Athens where we shall again settle down for some study in a more leisurely way. This week has been an "impressionistic trip," I think. A quick stroke of the brush here, a dash of paint there, a stroke, and that another, and the picture is done. In an impressionist's picture, details are not necessary. The imagination is to supply what the picture lacks. Next week and for several weeks following we shall fill in more details. We shall spend time, and on July what is given us as we take time to assimilate it. We are to study the people and what they are doing. We are to study what they have done in the centuries gone by as we see the remains of their work scattered all around us. The Colosseum, the Parthenon, the Vatican paintings and sculpture, all these are to help us in knowing people who have lived in other centuries, and, knowing them better, we shall know the people of today better. People of different ages express their emotions in different ways, but the emotions are similar. Love, hate, ambition, patriotism have not changed, but their expression changes with the centuries. It is not then interesting to study people, to get into their inner lives from what they have left us?

So far we have touched several spots made interesting by associations with the great Caesar, for you know "Gallia est omnis divisa in partes tres," and we have seen some of them. When we got to Rome, we shall see more that will remind us of Caesar.

So far we have experienced no hot weather. In fact all the troubles promised us here are still to come if they come at all. We are in sunny Italy. Into my window is floating the sweet music of an Italian orchestra not far away, and the people here are all glad to assist in making the "American" happy. I am sure our stay here will be pleasant.
